- Training and mentoring Junior Research Staff, under the direction of the Cultural Heritage Coordinator
- Developing research design and methodology for interviews, leading interviews and focus group sessions with SSN members, Elders and Knowledge Keepers;
- Completing data gap analysis and developing recommendations/work plans to address identified gaps;
- Drafting and finalizing Cultural Heritage Study reports, site-specific and landscape-level protection plans, and other related materials to be reviewed by the Cultural Heritage team, Cultural Heritage Oversight Committee and approved by Joint Chief and Council;
- Fostering strong, collaborative relationships with management, colleagues and community members;
- Assisting with SSN's Project Assessment Process;
- Presenting at Cultural Heritage Oversight Committee meetings, Open Houses, Family Panel meetings, and to Joint Chief and Council and proponents

Other requirements include:

- Excellent report writing, editing and formatting skills;
- Strong interpersonal, presentation and communication skills (written and verbal);
- Advanced analytical, research and engagement skills;
- Extensive experience in archival research as well as interview ethics, memory mapping, research design and methodology;
- Familiarity with existing ethnographic data on Secwepemc, specifically SSN, Tk'emlups te Secwepemc and Skeetchestn Indian Band, as it derives from ethnographic and ethnohistorical published and unpublished sources;
- Proficiency using Microsoft Office programs such as Word, Excel, PowerPoint and SharePoint;
- Participation in off-site and outdoor-related functions, Open Houses, meetings and workshops, including trainings;
- Valid Class 5 driver's licence;
- Ability to work flexible hours (i.e., short-notice or extended hours);
- Written and oral Secwepemctsin would be an asset

Other qualifications, knowledge, skills and abilities:

- Preferred: a Master's Degree in Indigenous Studies or Law, Anthropology, Political Science, Geography, English, Forestry, Environmental Studies, and/or relevant work experience.
- Preference will be given to members of the Secwepemc Nation or individuals of Indigenous descent.
- Applicants should have a strong understanding of Secwepemc culture, tradition, and history.
